

101 Questions and Answers about Weather and the Bible

Are traditional weather sayings accurate? Is there a creationist view of the weather? What is weather like on other planets? Why do lakes freeze from the surface downward? What was the New Testament climate? From weather basics to weather in the past and weather in the Scriptures, 101 Questions and Answers about Weather and the Bible is a clearly written introduction to weather patterns and phenomena. In this fascinating book, scientist Donald DeYoung offers answers from the biblical viewpoint of a creation planned for our well-being in order to reveal the design and grandeur of creation and encourage an appreciation of all God has made. The answers to commonly asked weather questions affirm God's power and illustrate the Creator's provision for the earth's weather system. Donald B. DeYoung is a scientist, an author, and chairman of the science and mathematics department at Grace College in Winona Lake, Indiana. He is the author of several books on science and the Bible, including 77 Fairly Safe Science Activities for Illustrating Bible Lessons. Don has been president of the Creation Research Society, a worldwide group of scientists who promote biblical creation, for several years.
