

The Mountaineer of the Neversink: A Poem in Four Cantos (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Mountaineer of the Neversink: A Poem in Four Cantos To preface a new book as printed, not published, is to introduce it to those who will recognise themselves as within the limit of its designed circulation. Yet, most of these - the Authors friends - ere they freely admit the new member, might justly demand of a Poem the password of its own history. The study of the Beautiful in Nature develops an enthusiasm, which, ever aspiring, discerns in the Divine Expression alone, the true and vital attribute or Principle of Beauty. This aspiration naturally courts sympathy; our higher impulses are but life itself, and to hide them is to oppose our very natures. By pen or pencil, we ever seek to strengthen our own emotions by exciting a reflex from the hearts and minds of others. Naturally enough, these expressions have, in the following pages, found currency in a simple narrative. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
