

Beach (Inherit the Earth Book 1)

After his father's unforeseen death, sixteen-year-old Seth finds himself taking care of his younger sister and supporting his heartbroken mother at a remote beach house. When he starts having nightmares that threaten to take his life, and he finds a mysterious elderly neighbor dead, being the man of the house becomes a dangerous responsibility. Meanwhile, in a world beneath the waves, Maya and Stela, two shy, young, teenage girls are tasked with saving the fantastic underwater city of Maris from destruction. Yet all is not as it seems as they delve into a mystery set into motion centuries before by forces they're only beginning to understand. When Seth's sister vanishes and Maris's last lights are drowned out, the children despair as the weight of their actions crashes down on them. As their paths converge, the children discover their missions are one and the same, and that no one is alone. Journey with Seth, Maya, and Stela, children from two worlds who must join forces in an adventure that challenges them to discover who they really are, to fight for their own survival, and to come to terms with what it means to Inherit the Earth.
