

ATL. Jail

Officer C. felt that working at the ATL. Jail wasn't a bad idea but it played a profound impact on her 10 years of experience. It's interesting to know how some of her superiors are so corruptive and vindictive towards the officers. With all of the betrayal, favoritism, disparity treatment you must read this thrilling and funny non-fiction novel the most riveting and unbelievable on what goes on in the Atl. Jail. Officer C. speaks from her most memorable experiences. The names have been changed to protect the innocent. C believes in keeping it real, so how can one be mad at the truth.
