

The Club That Wouldnt Die: Barnet FC From Barry Fry to disaster and back

A fascinating account, written by a supporter with help of other supporters, of the comings and goings at English Football Club, Barnet FC in a period which marked some of the undoubted highs and lows of its existence. A must read for supporters of the club, aficionados of English Non-League football and anyone with interest in the relationship between owners, managers, players, authorities and supporters in English football.
