Trapped in the Shadow of MohammedThe story of a girl whose goodwill is thousand times brighter than thousand years old religious darkness...Trapped in the Shadow of Mohammed is the story of a girl whose own existence had become her first enemy before she was born. Her father tells her many times how much he wishes to have a snake or a stone rather than her. Her mother who is unable and afraid to love her own self never loves her. Her tutors are either complete sleep walkers or scared to teach the truths. In her town everyone believes what imams say and they say that Women are evil. She begins seeking the truth to prove imams and everyone who believes imams wrong, because she is a woman and she is not evil. Is she as free as she wishes to be to do that? Of course not! Her only refuge is knowledge,her only friends are books. She studies philosophy despite her strict muslim father who reads Quran without understanding it and who blindly worships Mohammed.Will the dead philosophers most of who also discriminate women in their thinking and writings help her? She studies politics where no man wants or likes another man and constantly seeks sound reasons to create a new war. She leaves them at each others throats but her burning desire for freedom and equality does not leave her alone for a second...Will she ever taste the freedom in such undemocratic,misogynistic environment?Will she be able to free herself from Islamic darkness and oppression? Enter into her life, conquer her soul to feel feminine invincibility in one click...Trapped in the Dark Shadow of Mohammed is not only a story of an oppressed girl in an Islamic society but it is also a historical evidence that shows us how 9/11 terrorist attack affected other parts of the world outside the USA. It highlights how international politics shapes individuals lives...Happy,stimulating, enlightening reading...??? Another
