

Closure and the Law of Relationship: Endings as New Beginnings

With Closure and the Law of Relationship: Endings as New Beginnings, lifestyle and relationship expert Lissa Coffey takes an in-depth look at the course of relationships in our lives and shows how each can be a learning tool in our journey of Self-awakening. When we can look at the people in our lives as teachers or students, Coffey says, and as being there at a specific time for a specific purpose, then we will value our relationships all the more. In this inspiring and practical book, Coffey takes us on a journey of human relationships as she speaks about the ties we create with our parents, partners, siblings, children, friends and coworkers. Coffey says the Law of Relationship is a tool we can use much in the same way as we use the Law of Attraction. It explains our universal interconnectedness and puts forth the point that we are here to help each other learn and grow. To move on, to progress, from a change in any relationship, whether it is from a breakup, a death, a move, or any other reason, a sense of closure becomes of paramount importance. In this, her newest book, Coffey provides a five-step process through which closure becomes possible. With the assistance of real-life examples, Transformation Applications, and Wisdom Affirmations, Coffey illuminates our understanding and provides activities to help readers process the different relationship stages. In Closure and the Law of Relationship, she has created a practical, spiritual guide to help readers achieve peace of mind and greater Self-realization.
