As the author explains, integration is vital for success. The longest distance to truth exists between our head and our heart. When we achieve integration, we are enlightened and centered. We become sensitive to the presence of divinity within our own spirit and begin to live in responsive cooperation. Aligned with God, we live in harmony with our soul and are connected to humankind, says Done. Continuing, If war is causally predetermined, so are we, and dolls or not we can change everything when we first change ourselves back to whom we really are; love. Life is freely given to you and me, and we are free to honour life, or not. Before peace comes a call for unity with our Eternal All. As if I see a fire storm fast approaching, I run to you wanting to shake mankind. Daring to disturb the big sleep, I shout, Wake up! Wake up! Since its release, the book has attracted a consistent string of rave reviews. For example, one newspaper editor commented, What an intriguing and thought-provoking book. It certainly packs a huge emotional wallop! It must have taken much courage to write. Another reader was equally as impressed, adding, I finished reading your book, put it down and cried. I cant say why. It seemed to validate me in some way. Write more! With such positive feedback, Done is excited about what the future holds. With harmony and goodwill toward all as our blueprint for world peace, we will grow in deep human satisfaction. When we contribute to these nobler hopes and dreams, we uplift ourselves and resurrect the whole of humankind; we begin reaching our greater destiny, she adds. With the books popularity set to rapidly increase, interested readers are urged to purchase their copies as soon as possible.
