

Directory of International Economic Organizations

A convenient reference, this book provides essential information about international economic organizations -- agencies that promote economic cooperation by studying and taking action on such issues as international economic relations, currency stabilization, trade barriers, capital assistance, labor relations, and macro-economic adjustment policies. Presented in an accessible fact-sheet format, the listings contain each organizations objectives, membership, structure, activities, address, and telephone, telex, and fax numbers. Where relevant, the entries also offer information about vocational training, scholarship, prizes, and awards. Appendices feature a chronology of international economic cooperation, a guide to abbreviations, and tables of membership.
