

Burnt Oak

Burnt Oak is about two London teenage girls, Rebecca and Letitia. They come from different backgrounds and go to different types of school but, when they meet at a bus-stop, they click. This story follows them over a long weekend; they get to know each other better, they help each other, and they get to meet each others family and friends. They also start to understand more about their own situations in life, and to think more about what the future holds for each of them.
