presence. Mystery Accomplished may be one of the most enlightening and rewarding books you will read. Author Bio: Jim Reeves was the youngest of six children. Growing up on a dairy farm in rural Northwest Arkansas shaped his approach to life. His mother was a deeply religious, gentle lady who had an insatiable desire to know and understand the Bible. Her influence made a deep impression on her children and Jim has spent a lifetime following a similar quest. Jim graduated from York College with honors and then attended David Lipscomb University in Tennessee where he continued his studies in Bible and music. He holds a BA in Organizational Management from Concordia University. Jim has had a long and successful career in the oil and gas industry, and has always been actively involved in a local church, having preached, led worship, and taught Bible classes for churches in Arkansas, Colorado, Indiana, and Texas. He married his wife, Donna, in 1967 and they have two grown children and three grandchildren. His professional career has taken him to several countries, the most life-changing being a three year assignment in Lagos, Nigeria. It was during this time he decided to put on paper what he believes to be the simple Biblical truth concerning the end times and the Revelation of Jesus Christ; Mystery Accomplished!
