

Hello from heaven!: A new field of research confirms that life and love are eternal

Have you been contacted by a loved one who has died? Is there life after death? Will you enter a new realm of existence when your life on earth is over? Will you be reunited with your deceased loved ones when you die? Can they communicate with you now? These are some of the questions dealt with in this first hand accounts (353 of them) from new field of research called After Death Communications or ADCs.
