

The Gospel in the Pentateuch: Five Books in One Volume

Henry Law (1797-1884) was a great Bible scholar, teacher, and prolific writer. While he wrote many books during his life, among the best are his series of five books which point to Christ throughout the Torah, the first five books of the Old Testament. While it is possible to purchase these books individually, they were intended from the beginning to go together, which is precisely what we've done with this collection. You get all five classics in the Gospel in the Pentateuch series for one low price. This volume contains the following books: The Gospel in Genesis, The Gospel in Exodus, The Gospel in Leviticus, The Gospel in Numbers, The Gospel in Deuteronomy. Without question, Christ was ever-present in the Old Testament. This series of books is a strong reinforcement to that truth. It is great for personal study, but would also make fine material for a Sunday school, small group, or family devotion.
