Sheila, like so many girls her age, tries her best to find the right guy. Is there any other place than grade school to start looking for a boyfriend? Sheila blissfully thinks boys are cute and that she would like to have one. She and her girlfriends concoct a plan to find Sheila her very first boyfriend. She is hoping their plan works and that she can finally say I have a boyfriend. Her journey continues in junior high and into high school where she finds excitement, love and new beginnings. She has some breathtaking moments and of course she and her heart play tug-of-war. Find out who she falls in love with, who is not right for her and who she can not get enough of.
