

Marketing-How to Stay in Control in a Changing World

About the eBook Every marketing article today tells us that direct mail campaigns and radio ads are being replaced by the world of Facebook, Twitter and Tumblr. It can make marketers question their charter. The message hasn't changed you still need to understand what your customers want only now it is referred to as customer engagement. Just remember, the 4Ps are still alive and well in the world of marketing; we may just be getting more caught up in some of the tools. Your marketing plan should drive what tools you use, not the other way around. Most marketing executives will tell you that the biggest challenge is bringing it all together having a clear plan of execution, building a qualified, motivated team, and being able to bring your plan to life. In some organizations, marketing is a cost center that is seen as a high SGA line item necessary for business; in others it is a group that works separate from the rest of the organization. At the end of the day, sales drive customers and customers wants drives retention. What is marketing's job? Make sure it all works together.
