

Unmask The Liar: A journey through a decade of domestic violence and beyond (Champions of Hope)

Lisa, an educated mother of three recounts her personal journey, in graphic detail, of secretly living through a decade of domestic violence and abuse, to help illustrate a truly pragmatic and straight forward tutorial on how to successfully leave your abuser with confidence and peace of mind. Lisas entire twenties were consumed by crisis and living a double life. The author offers the reader a clear understanding of the true reality of their own situation and how to recognize the contributions they make to the cycle of abuse. This book will help guide and empower anyone who is engaged in an abusive domestic relationship, change the direction of their life and take control of their own future! Lisa goes through steps in each Chapter and reveals things that have never been said before. Lisa also addressess how our system isnt working and why we need to share our stories to provoke National change. Watch for Lisas follow-up book, written for those who know, and want to support, women in abusive relationships. A why-they-stay and how-to book Support for the Supporters! 20% of all on-going book sales are donated family violence protection. www.wittfoundation.org
