

Amor Y Cohetes (Love & Rockets)

The Love & Rockets library continues with this special volume. To a very great extent, Love & Rockets is synonymous with Hoppers Maggie & Hopey and Palomars Luba & Carmen & Heraclio & Tonantzin... but there was always more to L&R than that. Amor y Cohetes finally collects together in one convenient package all the non-Maggie and non-Palomar stories by all three Hernandez Brothers from that classic first, 50-issue Love and Rockets series a dizzying array of styles and approaches that re-confirms these groundbreaking cartoonists place in the history of comics. The book leads off with Gilberts original 40-page sci-fi epic BEM from 1981s very first issue of Love & Rockets, featuring a very different Luba and a much looser, Heavy Metal and Marvel Comics-inspired way of storytelling. Other stories include Jaimes charming Rocky and Fumble series starring a planet-hopping girl and her robot; stunning one-shots such as Gilberts Frida Kahlo biography Frida and his shocking autobiographical fantasia My Love Book; Marios genre thrillers which take place Somewhere in California; Gilberts brutally dystopian Errata Stigmata stories; the playful Hernandez Satyricon, with Gilbert drawing Jaimes characters, and War Paint, with Jaime trying out Palomar; Gilberts light-hearted Music for Monsters starring Bang and Inez; and even a fantastical non-continuity Maggie and Hopey story Easter Hunt by Jaime that didnt fit into the other books. Amor y Cohetes, the seventh (and concluding, for now) volume in the new Complete Love & Rockets series of compact, affordable paperbacks, shows a very different side of Los Bros Hernandez.
