

Do Less, Get More: By Thinking Inside Out

You can do more with less effort when you have the right inside thinking. Braun uses the latest behavioral change techniques founded in hard science that enables people to have their goals happen easier. Do Less, Get More describes these techniques in 7 easy to follow steps that condition inside thinking for success. Latest science research says that inside thinking is like a MAP of the world that guides our behaviour. Sometimes this MAP guides us into things that make it harder to succeed. Often people describe this as running into road blocks or barriers. Braun walks the reader through a seven step process that removes these barriers to success and success becomes easier. The author has used this process with hundreds of people who have noticed the difference. Now you can use these steps to increase your effectiveness. Everybody who wants to have more in business and more out of life needs to read this book.
