

Mortimer Loses A Friend (Mortimer Adventures Book 1)

Mortimer Loses a Friend is a storybook for anyone who has ever had one they love die and for those who wish to help their friend move through grief. With compassion, wisdom and humor the forest friends learn the best way to help Mortimer is to listen and to let him feel all his feelings. This Second Edition is magazine size. The First Edition is purse size. Watch for the audio, English-Spanish and Russian editions soon. Mortimer Finds Home is in the works. Other Mortimer Adventures will follow. Mortimer Loses a Friend is the first in a series of stories about meandering through windy roads, rushing rivers, prickly paths, spectacular mountains and deep ravines. Wendy llama, who has fled from a nearby farm in search of adventure, joins Mort in future escapades. In between naps, Joey raccoon, sincerely wanting to participate, struggles to keep up as he resists discarded people food. Cheeky crows, Sully and Sammy, dive into mischief and ponder meanings the others may have overlooked. Fonzi squirrel flits about, always eager to help in the cause. Together, the merry band learns about teamwork, their unique qualities, success, failure and being extra-ordinary.
