

Lord Put A Ring on It

Did Cinderella properly prepare us as little girls to meet our prince charming? Did that shoe really fit or did it just give us corns? As little girls, we were taught that there would be a handsome prince that would ride up and sweep us off of our feet and we would live happily ever after. For many women the remix and the reality of that story on finding love has involved men riding up on donkeys and sending women down a road of despair! God desires first that His daughters are fit for the kingdom and then he prepares us for the prince. There is one very important thing that we can learn from the fairytale of Cinderella ladies and it is the fact that prince charming was seeking her and her foot had to properly fit that shoe in order to have her prince charming. That same principle holds true for you ladies. God has designed in His infinite plan that the prince, the godly man, seek after you and you have to be fitted to be his mate. This is not just another how to book on relationships; it is truly a way of life for Christian women who are seeking to find Godly relationships and for those who are seeking to strengthen marriages or relationships. If you are tired of finding the same old junk and enduring the same old things in a relationship, then come with me on this world wind romance that God has designed for you. Discover how to become a princess fit for a King!
