

The Wind Ninja

Travis Allen, a junior black belt karate student must move with his family from his home in Longmont Colorado to New York City. His father has accepted a promotion with his job. Travis gets off to a rocky start with his competition and does not do well. He meets a girl in his school, Amy who is a ballerina. Travis wants to take ballet lessons to help his karate. Travis must defend himself against several bullies as he works at his karate skills and his interest in the ballet. Travis and Amy enter a local TV talent show but do not win. They are seen by a ballet school director who wants to cast them in production of the Nutcracker Ballet. Follow Travis as he struggles to become a better karate student and his interest in the ballet.
