

Not of My Making: Bullying, Scapegoating and Misconduct in Churches

Have you ever been teased or bullied? Or perhaps you have seen someone else being cruelly teased or maybe you were the bully. Like most of us, Margaret believed that once she graduated from high school the teasing and bullying would stop. She was wrong. The bullying just took forms that were more sophisticated. High school bullies often remain bullies. Bystanders still fail to take any action that will help the victim. Victims continue to find it difficult to find a place for themselves at work, in social settings and at church. Not of My Making tells the true story of how one woman's childhood victimization left her easy prey for the grownup bullies at church, the one place she foolishly believed would always be safe. Read about Margaret's personal growth from victim to survivor to thriver.
