Taelas city was destroyed and she lost many people she loved, but she cannot give up now. The Sources are waiting for her. She is the Vessel, the legendary being able to use these great gems of power. But first, she must find them. Cryptic clues, dangerous obstacles, and difficult choices are a guarantee in her quest, and she must not forget the sorceress who will stop at nothing to take the power for herself. If Taela can find a way to believe in her potential, she just might succeed in protecting all she holds dear.
