

Think Independently: How to Think in This World but Noth Think With It

How do humans know? What are the nature and limits of science? What are the nature and limits of history? What is real? What should each person do to be good and wise? What is the basic framework of our thinking? These questions give rise to a broad array of investigations. Dr. Riddle effectively addresses these and many other questions relating to the topic of knowledge sand the study of think and most importantly how to think independently
