

The War on Women

Empowering Women: The War on Women is a fact-based compendium on the issues of rights of women, women development, GOP, Republican Party, and gender inequality. Written by best-selling author and behavioral scientist, Dr. Treat Preston, his goal is to fairly address both sides of the controversial issue of The War on Women and then let his readers decide for themselves. The book also addresses the rights of women, gender inequality, and women development, issues that need devout attention and a voice that women can seek and find the correct information on such important issues. There is a good deal of misinformation being circulated from the mainstream media, bloggers, and special interest groups and not all of the information is factual and real. Here is the TABLE OF CONTENTS: DISCLAIMER AND TERMS OF USE AGREEMENT: Introduction Just The Facts Please Chapter 1 Gender Inequality Chapter 2 The Rights of Women Chapter 3 Women Development Chapter 4 Both Sides of The War on Women Chapter 5 Its a Jungle Out There Chapter 6 Summing It All Up I Have a Special Gift for My Readers Meet the Author All issues dealing with women are important. Dr. Preston, in his best-selling book, When Women Become Toys attempts to dispel male mores regarding relationships with women and the embedded mindset of men that are counterproductive to womens rights and well-being. Women ARE NOT toys and this book will be a real eye-opener for women from all walks of life.
