

Rebuilding your life after redundancy - The New Life Network Handbook

NEW 2009 edition - as featured on BBC 5Live & BBC Breakfast TV The trauma of redundancy currently haunts thousands of people every working day and the media is full of reports about people who are worried about their job security and how to re-invent their careers in today's uncertain and demanding times. Would you know how to rebuild your life if your old career disappeared? In 2005, Janet Davies set up the New Life Network, www.newlifenetwork.co.uk, a free online resource providing information and support for those suffering the aftershock of redundancy. The website has attracted thousands of visitors and media commentators who have praised it for its comprehensive and relevant content, and down-to-earth, friendly style. Rebuilding your life after redundancy - The New Life Network Handbook 2009 is the essential one-stop shop for anyone who needs to create a new life after redundancy. If you need a book that will put redundancy into perspective, give some sensible advice and guidance, provide follow-up resources and contacts and do all this without being patronising - this is it. A good-value alternative to the sometimes overbearing world of outplacers, agencies and financial advisers, Its also useful if you want to change career or jump out of your box. Personnel Today.
