

Six Days that Divide the Planet: Five Compelling Reasons to Believe in Creation

What we believe about origins is so critical to our outlook on life that it often produces fear and anger. If the Creation account is true, then there is a creator to which I am accountable! That's just a little bit threatening! There are many who are personally and intensely offended by this thought! The other side of the coin is this; If Evolution is true, it pointedly leads to the conclusion that there is no God. That can be as threatening as the opposite viewpoint! The theory of Evolution does not require that there be no God, it just has no need of Him. Remove God from the equation and you have no truth and no absolute values. Mankind is left to create a society in his own image. We are in a pitched battle of worldviews. The stakes are high. This is an epic battle of worldviews. Nothing less than our entire way of life and our entire value system is at risk here in the west! In this little book, the author gives five compelling reasons you should believe in Creationism.
