

Rightly Dividing the Scriptures: Regarding Gods Will and Human Freedom

This booklet identifies and deals with some crucial issues which Christians continue to face. There are many winds of doctrine which confuse and mislead, but the reader should find assistance here in detecting error and rightly dividing the scriptures. If one wishes to understand whether God determines and decrees all that comes to pass or not whether man is a creature of free-will or not whether man can do anything to be saved or not whether Christians are eternally secure or not, then he will not want to lay this book aside until he has read and re-read it! Geo. R. Brunk I was known to his contemporaries as an aggressive exponent of the faith once delivered to the saints. His own characteristic and straightforward method will be obvious to all who read his works. His book, READY BIBLE ANSWERS continues to be in demand after four editions. He also founded and edited the SWORD AND TRUMPET magazine until the time of his home-going. Many have been influenced deeply by his life and his teaching as a pulpiteer and writer, including the writer of this introduction who stands with those who were astonished at his theological understanding and his spiritual insights.
