

George Washington Ate Here

We've been asked what George Washington Ate Here has to do with the recipes and anecdotes inside this compilation of foods and historic facts. Once you've started reading, you'll understand. Most of the recipes and stories either originated during Colonial times or were inspired by events and happenings of early America. Most of the presidents of the period are featured in one or more pages, and their wives contributed to the foods of the era and to this book (without knowing it, of course).
