His father was an alcoholic, away at a rehabilitation centre and hadnt spoken to his son in over 4 months. Nicky lived with his mother and was so afraid he would never see his dad again he often said very ugly and nasty things to his mother. He yelled and screamed and wouldnt stop until she began hitting him in the face and hitting him on the head. He began thinking; Every time I speak I get hit. So he stopped speaking and wouldnt tell anyone why. Nicky hadnt spoken a word in three months other than Uh huh for Yes and Un huh for No. He sometimes moved his head up and down for Yes and left and right for No. He was having problems in school and with the police. The only place he felt safe was with his grandmother, but he wouldnt tell her how bad things were at home, so she took him to the doctor to find out what was wrong. He is severely tongue-tied, Dr. Joe explained He may never speak again unless you find out what happened to him. Nickys grandmother knew I worked with troubled children so she asked me to try to help him. When he came to my apartment a thought entered my head, Nicky needs something to help him feel connected to his father. What should I do? I wondered. Tell him about the pink ribbon, came the reply. I didnt know anything about pink ribbons but when I asked my magical question that always gave me the perfect answer, I got an idea! Fifteen minutes later I concluded with,

Whenever you miss your daddy, just think of this pink ribbon and at that exact moment, no matter where your daddy is, even if you're an old man and your daddy's died and gone to heaven, he will begin thinking of you and feeling that special LOVE coming from you to him; the LOVE that loves you when you cannot love yourself. Really? he whispered, as a single tear rolled down his cheek. I prayed for a sign that I had done the right thing. At that EXACT moment, his grandmother knocked on my door and said, Nicky come quick! Your father's on the phone long distance! Nicky blasted out of my apartment into his grandmother's to talk to his dad. I was just thinking about you, Nicky's dad said. I know Nicky squealed with delight, I just sent you a pink ribbon! Nicky has not been the same since that experience in 1981. Also available as an eBook, Booklet, CD and soon DVD. You sent me the story because of the death of my dear four-legged friend of 15 years who died one month ago. During my morning meditation my grandmother, who had died 20 years ago, popped into my mind. I've been filled with guilt and regret since then because I didn't make an effort to see her before she died. I thought of your ribbon and shared one with her. She just said Its Ok. Those two words melted 20 years of pain. I began crying and had to go outside to be with this before I told my wife what had happened. Your booklet is amazing! Haven't used it with my dog yet!!- Steven J. Ontario,
