

Rural School Consolidation in Missouri (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Rural School Consolidation in Missouri The University of Missouri has established a Bureau of Consolidation to which letters upon any of the questions involved in consolidation may be addressed. Plats and information about proposed plans may be sent to the University if an opinion as to methods and procedure is desired. As far as possible, capable lecturers will be sent out where needed. The State Department and the State Normal Schools are as deeply interested in consolidation as is the University, and will give assistance upon application. Address all communications with the University to the Bureau of Consolidation, University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri.
