

The Postmodern Saints of France: Refiguring the Holy in Contemporary French Philosophy

From the mid to the late 20th century various French thinkers have at times toyed with the label of the saint, applying it to friends, colleagues, the revered and even the worshipped such as Genet, Sartre, Camus or Foucault. Despite this profaning of the term, however, there are many subtle truths which emerge from its usage among such writers. This volume is devoted to exploring certain varied notions of the saint in recent French philosophical and literary thought from within a theological context, offering insights and valuable contributions toward how we understand sainthood in cultural, philosophical and religious terms. Each essay focuses on the convergence of a particular authors work and their various (re)formulations of saintliness in their writings, whether this concept is directly expressed in their writings or not. In general, the aim of the volume is to develop a critical engagement between each authors philosophical worldview and historical notions of sainthood, such that we are capable of providing new understandings of what a saint could be said to be in our world today.
