

John Wesley-Evangelist

The book John Wesley-Evangelist finds Wesley speaking to us. His Biblical teaching leads your thinking as it did to those in the Eighteenth-century. You can learn from him. From the book you will see his concern for people needing Jesus Christ. You will explore how to apply his precepts to churches using modern means. Le David Morris believes that Wesley's message is universal. His methods can be copied by any size church. You will discover the passion Wesley developed for salvation through Christ! Chapter 15 descloses an element of growing churches. You will find the secret is plain as offering the gospel message from a Wesleyan approach to ministry and mission. You will uncover how one basic concept can change a declining church to a growing church. Morris is a retired business consultant, teacher and United Methodist minister from the Memphis Annual Conference.
