

Stuck On You - a year in the life of a Chelsea supporter

Stuck On You - a year in the life of a Chelsea supporter is an entertaining and engaging anthology of articles written by Walter Otton which document his experiences watching the Blues during the 2014-2015 season. Featuring additional and previously unpublished material, Stuck On You sees Walter immerse himself in the barroom culture of fabled pre-match watering hole the Finborough Arms and elaborate on the sticker phenomenon which has seen self-adhesive Chelsea slogans appearing over land and sea -- and Leicester -- of course. Football is never far away as Walter depicts the Blues journey to Premier League glory with vivid prose as unique as the cast of characters he meets along the way.
