

The Dreams That You Dare to Dream

On November 9th 2007 Michael Bailey lost his sister and best friend Lisa to a rare form of cancer. Lisa was just 32 years old. It was a loss that would test his reasoning and stretch his emotions to breaking point. In this book Michael captures the intense feelings of sadness, grief, despair, joy, happiness and bitter sweet nostalgia he has experienced since losing Lisa. Michael recalls the wonderful and unique friendship he shared with Lisa and his struggle to hold on to it. The book charts his journey into the depths of grief and his fight to follow his sisters wishes for him to grab life with both hands. In this book Michael offers proof that even when we lose our loved ones we dont have to stop loving them.
