

Dream Your Dreams

Dream your dreams are a collection of poems, quotations, and inspirations. It contains my writings for the past ten years. These writings are from my own life experiences, feelings, and emotions. A few of the experiences depicted in my writings were written about my friends experiences. I hope this book will give you insight and inspiration to your life. Writing this book and getting it published has been a life long dream of mine. I gave birth to my son three months premature. My husband and I have experienced many of the expected difficulties common with premature births. I am currently on the March of Dimes committee. For every book purchased, I will donate a percentage of the profits to the March of Dimes Foundation. Thousands of babies are born premature every year and research is continuously being done to help prevent and reduce prematurity. I want to help make a difference and with your purchase of this book we will be helping in the fight against premature births.
