

The Answer: A Perspectiving Book

The book reads like a journal and is printed in hand writing. It allows the reader to feel like they are the author, because they are. Half of the book is the reader writing their own answers to their questions that they have to help them discover who they are. This interactive process allows the book to be theirs. The book is so unique in that it is written for the reader as if the reader has written the book. It is a journey that the reader takes with the author. The message is one of hope, one of assurance and one of relief to know that people have the answers within themselves...
