

Why am I so Damn Unhappy?: And What to Do About It.

Why am I so Damn Unhappy? is written by a fictional character named Bob. He's a former stand-up comedian who became a happiness coach. Using humor and honesty, Bob wakes people up to what's making them unhappy and shows them what to do about it. For example, he helps them understand how to counterattack when the punies have them on the run, how to quit taking guilt trips, and how to untie the knots of fear in their minds. This book is set off from other self-help books about happiness by the nature of the issues it covers, its story approach, dialogue format, and humor. It also has a lively sense of imagination as famous people show up to teach. These guest coaches add an element of surprise to keep the book interesting. Creative Sidetracks in the book give readers helpful insights to increase their happiness. Coaching tips appear at the end of each chapter to reinforce the key teachings. Jim Downton is an author, award-winning teacher, and artist. As a teacher, he created The Life Gardening Project to help people increase their happiness and creativity. His life revolves around the issues of wisdom and creativity, which are ways of cultivating peace of mind, happiness, and an easier way of living. The pursuit of happiness is one of the most famous phrases in the Declaration of Independence; one of the inalienable rights of man (and woman). When James Downton, Jr., Ph.D. a.k.a. Dr. Bob, the Happiness Coach asks, in his newly published book Why Am I So Damn Unhappy: And What to Do About It!, he is offering the answer to why so many people everywhere, including our precious and troubled teenagers, just cant begin and end the days of their lives with an overall feeling of happiness. Why Am I So Damn Unhappy: And What to Do About It! offers solid advice and real solutions that can make life-long attitude changes in the life of an otherwise miserable to mildly depressed individual.
