

Zippy: Type Z Personality (Zippy (Graphic Novels))

Americas last great newspaper strip, presented the way it should be read! Bill Griffiths Zippy the Pinhead is a pop culture icon. The surrealist-leaning character is one of the most recognizable figures on the newspaper pages, seen by tens of millions of people a day. Syndicated by King Features since 1986, Zippy is read in hundreds of daily newspapers across the country, while the Pinheads trademark non sequitur, Are we having fun yet?, has become so often repeated its in Bartletts Familiar Quotations. His likeness has been graffitied on the Berlin Wall and aped for Saturday Night Lives classic Conehead sketches. This new Zippy collection features approximately a years worth of strips, from November 2004 through November 2005, including full-color Sundays. Unlike most newspaper pages, the book sports top-notch reproduction worthy of Griffiths master draftsmanship. Part satire, part philosophy, and part surrealism, Zippy is one having fun pinhead and the perfect antidote to the real world. In Type Z Personality, Zippys new collection of daily and Sunday strips, Zippy dabbles in haiku, visits the malls of Australia, talks to Albert Einstein, lampoons Manga and goes into a deep trance while bowling. And if all that wasnt enough, Zippy insults Dick Cheney while imagining hes the hood ornament on a 1931 Studebaker.
